

Toyohashi chapter of the Japan Association for Language Teaching (JALT), along with College and University Educators SIG, Critical Thinking SIG and Speech, Drama and Debate SIG, presents:

"Thinking Critically"

Sunday, July 8 at Aichi University in Toyohashi
Registration: 9:15a.m. Presentations: 9:30 – 17:10
JALT members - FREE
Non-members - ¥2000 (half-day,) ¥1000

Presentations on debate:

"Debate: From U.S. High School Forensics to the Japanese University Classroom"
– James Matchett 9:30-9:50
"Teaching Debate as a Physical Sport" – David Kluge 10:50-12:00

Presentations on critical thinking:

"Can Critical Thinking Improve TOEFL Scores?" – Ken Slater 9:50-10:30
"Critical Thinking on the Fly: Engaging Learners in Processing Classroom Activities." – Steve Quasha 1:30-2:40
"Critical Thinking as Content-Based Instruction" – James Crocker 3:00-4:10

Poster presentations: 12:30-1:15

"Visualizing grammatical aspect in French" – Loic Renoud
"Recording, Transcribing and Analyzing Student Talks" – Tony Young

Displays by:

College and University Educators (CUE) SIG
Critical Thinking SIG
Speech, Drama & Debate (SD&D) SIG

For more information, please go to the Toyohashi Chapter of JALT webpage
<http://www.kokusai.aichi-edu.ac.jp/jalttoyohashi/entry.html>

This webpage can also be accessed from the JALT webpage under groups:
Toyohashi Chapter